CMHC Announces $13.2B under the National Housing Co-Investment Fund

Yesterday, Minister Duclos announced the launch of the National Housing Co-Investment Fund. Part of the federal government's National Housing Strategy, the National Housing Co-Investment Fund supports the creation or repair of affordable homes across the country.

Covering a broad range of housing needs from shelters to affordable homeownership, the National Housing Co-Investment Fund will:

- create 60,000 new units
- repair 240,000 units
- create or repair at least 4,000 shelter spaces for victims of family violence
- create at least 7,000 new affordable units for seniors
- create at least 2,400 new affordable units for people with developmental disabilities

Applications are accepted on a continuous basis throughout the year.
